

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

COLE BROS. CIRCUS SUPERHEROES SAVE THE DAY!

Like superheroes of fictional fame, Cole Bros. Superheroes of the Circus have extraordinary abilities. They fly, and they demonstrate superhuman strength and agility while putting their own safety at risk to serve others. These seemingly ordinary inhabitants of the Circus backyard may be mistaken for mere mortals when seen at Circus Tent Raising on the morning of opening day. But make no mistake: When the show commences, these genuine champions appear in elaborate outfits, transformed into astonishingly brave and daring characters destined to rescue audiences from the routine.

While members of the Yan Dong troupe may look like college students, under the Big Top these agile youths are The Monkey Men who leap from the trampoline, twisting and turning through the air to land on slender poles. Real-life wife, and mother of a teenage daughter, Maiya Panfilova materializes in Center Ring as The Mannequin whose apparently endless wardrobe changes in the blink of an eye. Petite and unassuming by day, Yu Ximeng and Tong Jai warp their torsos, contorting into The Living Candelabras that make you wonder if rubber replaced the bones in their bodies. Angels of Flight Monica and Charleny send spirits aloft as they soar through the air. Bringing to life a favorite childhood toy in rainbow hues and gigantic proportion, The Human Slinky expands itself and your imagination simultaneously. Tiny Tetyana the ticket seller turns into the Magic Bullet fired from the World's Largest Cannon.

You don't have to wait to read the book or see the movie: Cole Bros. Circus Superheroes of the Circus are on their way to your neighborhood to employ their amazing powers to battle boredom and defeat the dull, right before your eyes.
